School begins Monday and some of the kids wear a long face while others are happy over the prospect. Our school has an able corp of teachers this year and a splendid school year is looked forward to. Our school system is one of the greatest factors in the salvation of the youth of our country as it is a well know fact that education mitigates all kinds of crime. Send the boys and girls to school and keep them there, not to do so is a fatal mistake that always brings sorrow and regret.

Last Saturday forenoon at 9:30 o'clock fifteen automobile owners met at the office of Purcell & Phares for the purpose of forming an auto club. J. W. Phares was elected chairman of the meeting and W. W. Gibson, secretary. On motion a committee of three was appointed to formulate by laws and constitution; also a committee of three was appointed to draft an ordinance relating to the licensing and numbering of autos in the city. The object of the club is to acquaint the public on the laws governing automobiles and the making of better roads. Every auto owner in the county is invited to join.

New furniture makes a new home

Dear Amy:—
I've been to see Laura. You remember she and her husband stayed with us one night. She and Billy both like my home so well that Billy "loosened up" and told Laura to go down and by all the furniture she wanted.

Laura has just fitted out her house from the front door of the hall to the back door of the kitchen. She is the happiest woman in town.

With love,
Lou.

P. S.—Laura asked me where to buy. Know—she would get good strong, stylish furniture at lowest prices. I, of course sent her to
